

ODA Health and Safety Responsibility on Projects

Project	Category of ODA Responsibility	Example
Funding work by others, with no direct engagement	No CDM Client or more general client responsibility No monitoring of performance	Funding additional carriages for DLR
Work on neighbouring sites to Olympic Park conducted by third parties	No CDM Client or more general client responsibility; No monitoring of performance; Maintenance of good liaison, joint planning etc. and clarity of roles for work crossing boundaries; encouragement to third party to adopt similar high standards and share knowledge and information.	Westfield Stratford City development
ODA funds the work by other parties to achieve upgrade to facilities, funding all or some of the upgrade	No ODA CDM client or more general client responsibility; but ODA is engaged with delivery partner and has influence, so monitors performance and intervenes (influence) if necessary in relation to programme but not Health & Safety, which is the responsibility of London Underground Ltd and Network Rail in relation to the work undertaken by them.	Stratford Regional Station Upgrade

ODA grants a concession	Designated sites leased to concessionaire - no ODA client responsibility; but ODA is engaged with concessionaire, so influence under contract; ODA monitors performance and intervenes if necessary; contract drawn up to require concessionaire to work to the ODA H&S Standard; workers required to undergo Park Introduction where site is within OP boundary.	Energy Centre
Utilities projects	Network – ODA has full responsibility as CDM Client and more general client to set standards, monitor performance and intervene if necessary. Note that where the ODA is a joint client, the responsibility for discharging the client duties may by agreement rest wholly on the ODA, or be shared, or each shall discharge the duties as jointly and severally responsible. In such cases, the ODA and other parties shall monitor the performance of their fellow clients.	Utilities Network Utilities corridor ODA is client in OP Lend Lease is client in Village Westfield is client in Stratford City Three parties are joint clients in public domain
ODA appoints a Development Manager to work in an area outside the Olympic Park	Stratford Village Development Company (formerly known as Macropaint) will be the client and Lend Lease Developments Limited the CDM Coordinator and Principal Contractor. Lend Lease Developments Limited will in practice provide advice and assistance to SVDP in discharging its duties.	Olympic Village
ODA as funder and wholly engaged client and employer	ODA has full responsibility as CDM Client and more general client and employer to set standards, monitor performance and intervene if necessary.	Olympic Stadium IBC MPC Broxbourne